

A MESSAGE FROM BCU COMMANDER, CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT HELEN HARPER

Dear all,

I wanted to send a short message today to reassure you that officers are continuing to engage with our communities and explaining the lockdown regulations. By staying indoors, we are all protecting the NHS and saving lives.

I am pleased to highlight that Hate Crime figures remain relatively low. This is thought to be due to the impact of social distancing. However, as I have previously highlighted we would encourage all incidents of Hate Crime to be reported to us and we will continue to address any issues where we see them.

Please can I take this opportunity to highlight that we continue to update our website <https://www.met.police.uk/> with the latest information that you and your communities need together with other sources of key information for example <https://www.gov.uk/>.

We thank you for your continued support. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions.

Kindest regards

Helen
