

A MESSAGE FROM BCU COMMANDER, CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT HELEN HARPER

Dear all,

I hope you are all well.

Ramadan

As you know, Ramadan will commence shortly. I have re-attached the "Ramadan at Home" guidance from The Muslim Council of Britain and also include a link from Public Health England with some useful guidance.

<https://publichealthmatters.blog.gov.uk/2020/04/22/stay-at-home-for-ramadan/>

The coronavirus pandemic has challenged many parts of our daily life and means that Muslims in the UK and around the world will not be able to mark Ramadan and Eid Al-Fitr in the way they would normally do. However, faith leaders have been working hard to guide communities on alternative ways to mark Ramadan.

We have seen British Muslims across the country step up during this time to safely support their neighbours, communities and the most vulnerable. We welcome the community's continued contributions to our shared national effort and know this will take on a special meaning during Ramadan.

Ramadan Mubarak to all those observing Ramadan in our community.

Crime Prevention

Please find attached a graphic from the National Cyber Security Centre on SMS/Text message scams which you may find helpful to distribute to your contacts. Further crime prevention guidance can be found here: <https://www.met.police.uk/cp/crime-prevention/>

Stay indoors; protect the NHS, save lives.

We thank you for your continued support.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions.

Kindest regards
